

Amy Nicole Warner

OBJECTIVE: To engage, motivate, and foster student learning, understanding, and growth while preparing students to be ready for the challenges that they will face as 21st century learners, citizens, and leaders.

HIGHLIGHT OF QUALIFICATIONS

- Seven years of teaching experience in the area of social studies.
- Can use technology effectively in the classroom to enhance student learning.
- Experience working with students who receive special services.
- Experience working with students of all different cultural, economic, and social backgrounds.
- Dedicated to promoting higher level thinking within the curriculum and classroom.
- Committed to student success both inside and outside of the classroom.

EDUCATION

Michigan State University – East Lansing, Michigan
Master of Arts
Educational Technology

Expected August 2014

Madonna University - Livonia, Michigan
Bachelor of Arts
Major: Social Studies Minor: History

January 2003-May 2007

CERTIFICATION

State of Michigan Provisional Secondary Teaching Certification.

STATE OF MICHIGAN ENDORSEMENTS

1. Social Studies (RX)
2. History (CC)

Teaching Experience

Wilson Middle School – Wyandotte, Michigan

October 2013-Present

Wyandotte Public Schools

Sixth Grade Social Studies/Seventh Grade Technology

- Taught four classes of sixth grade social studies daily.
- Taught two classes of eight grade social studies daily.
- Responsible for teaching Microsoft Office Suite and web applications.
- Provided differentiated instruction for students of all different cultural, economic, and social backgrounds.
- Worked with a professional development team to provide common lessons and assessments for students of all achievement levels.
- Positive behavior intervention support team member
- Assistant girls track coach
- Assistant cross country coach

K12 – Virtual Online School

November 2011 – February 2013

High School Social Studies/History Teacher and Peer Coach

- Teach various high school social studies classes in a virtual setting. Subject areas taught include U.S. history, world history, geography, and economics.
- Responsible for delivering specific course content in an on line environment.
- Provide instruction, support and guidance, manage the learning process, and focus on students' individual needs.
- Monitor student progress through K12's learning management system, and work actively with students and parents to advance each child's learning.

Fairfield Middle School - Winnsboro, South Carolina

August 2009-June 2010

Fairfield County School District

Seventh Grade Social Studies

- Taught four classes of seventh grade social studies daily.
- Taught one section of advisory and reading recovery.
- Recycling Club Sponsor.
- Provided differentiated instruction for students of all different cultural, economic, and social backgrounds.
- Used explicit direct instruction to deliver content and curriculum standards to students of all achievement levels.
- Worked with a professional development team to provide common lessons and assessments for students of all achievement levels.

South Middle School - Belleville, Michigan
Van Buren Public Schools

August 2007-January 2009

Seventh Grade Social Studies

- Taught four classes of seventh grade social studies daily.
- Taught one section of advisory and reading enrichment daily.
- Provided differentiated instruction for students of all different cultural, economic, and social backgrounds.
- Worked with a professional development team to provide common lessons and assessments for students of all achievement levels.
- Team leader 2008-2009 school year
- Member of the school improvement team
- Member of the positive behavior support team.

Farmington Public Schools – Farmington, Michigan
Substitute Teacher

2006-2007 School Year

- Assist students in grades 6-12 with daily instruction and activities in the absence of the classroom teacher.

PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZATIONS

- Member of the Michigan Education Association August 2007- Present
- Member of the South Carolina Education Association September 2009- August 2011

VOLUNTEER WORK

The Haven – Pontiac, Michigan
Volunteer

December 2008 – August 2009

- Provided assistance and support to women and their children during their stay at the shelter.

Teacher’s Pet – Waterford, Michigan
Volunteer

December 2006-August 2007

- Worked with special needs students in the Waterford Public School District who had been selected for the Teacher’s Pet program.
- Assisted students in dog training for a rescue and adoption program.

American Red Cross – Lansing, Michigan
Volunteer

Fall 2002

- Provided assistance and support to individuals and families in need.

SPECIAL INTERESTS

- Swimming and dance.
- I would be interested in and willing to coach a middle or high school dance team and swim team.
- Reading and writing.
- Animal welfare
- The sciences; including biology and health.
- Curriculum development
- Educational Technology

References are furnished upon request